Gazelle's Corner

Welcome to this month's issue of PowerLines, the newsletter of the Orlando BDSM Munch community.

Happy New Year, everyone!!! I hope everyone had a chance to see in the new year (yes, the REAL new millenium, for all you purists out there!) in a grand fashion. I don't know about you, though, but I am VERY glad the holidays are once again behind us... time to get busy with all the things and events that the new year has to offer.

I am looking forward to getting over to Tampa on Feb 3rd to attend Sir Magic's Valentine Ball. It sounds like it is going to be a blast. (It is always nice for me to simply attend other folk's events, and be able to just kick back and have FUN!)

Speaking of fun times, registration is going well for the next Orlando Bash, now that we are past the holidays. Room preferences (smoking & non-smoking, King or Queen beds) are being filled, and interest is really beginning to snowball. I have had registrations coming in from all over FL, and around the country so far (MI, PA, AL & TX!) The vendor list is shaping up very nicely (15 confirmed vendors so far!), and the workshop topics are being formalized too. I've talked to Frazier, the owner of The Crucible (the east coast's largest traveling Dungeon), and he and his staff are really looking forward to coming down and partying Florida style! He indicated that he was probably going to be bringing down between 40-60 pieces of equipment for us to play on, everything from motorized St Catherine's wheels to pony carts to racks to bondage horses and more! His company has helped supply dungeon equipment for many of the top leather conventions in the country! There will be registration forms available at the sign-in desk at the Munch, and there is also info on the Bash on page 6 inside.

This issue also contains some great poetry by a friend of mine from OH, Celtic Prinze... we also have a WONDERFUL little story from our own SusieQ.. Very HOT! I was honored to be able to interview 2 Munch regulars, Jo & lu (online they are SirChaps & wolfcublu)... their comments make for a great read.

Finally, we have the thank you notes from the family that this community adopted at the holidays.. We helped a family with 4 kids have a great Christmas, where one would not have been possible otherwise. The outpouring of love and support from each of the participants (those who worked the event, or donated items for the raffle, or most importantly, all who bought tickets) warmed the hearts of all of us. I am SO proud to be part of this community!

Play safe, be nice to each other, and have a GREAT month!

Thank You Notes from the Holiday Raffle

To everyone in the Munches:

First of all, I must say THANK YOU from my children!!! Even though they've thanked you, as well; I cannot begin to tell you the joy you have brought to them this year.

Thanks to your generosity (believe me when I tell you that even $1 made a difference and to those who thought of it, but couldn't...you're also VERY much appreciated), there were clothes, toys, board games, CD's, videos, art supplies, and smiles....lots and lots of smiles!!! The kids even got the shower curtain they had picked out and wanted so badly, instead of the flimsy little Dollar Store one that they had!

The friends who helped do the shopping and the wrapping are also VERY much loved...there was lots and LOTS of wrapping to do....they even got to be there to witness firsthand some of the squealing and giggling that accompanied the smiles!!

The other thing that I had wanted to mention from the baby, is that he said, "OOOOOO...!!!" a lot while he was ripping open packages.

I know that it's not the most formal of things from the two little ones; but you have to remember, they're only 5 and 16 months

Anyone who has ever been where I've been knows how hard it can be to think of that season with anything but dread, when every penny is going towards basic survival....you helped truly make this a season of JOY!!!

THANK YOU!! THANK YOU!! THANK YOU!!

You've managed to prove once again that we truly ARE a family...and that all those "normal" people are wrong in every misconception they have about us.

On a more personal note, I wanted to again thank you for the love and strength of community that prompted this. I will forever and ever be grateful to you, and everyone at the Munches who helped my kids have the best holiday that they have EVER had!! You managed to take four scared, lonely kids who had nothing in their lives (because almost everything had to be left behind) and made them start to feel whole again. This is a debt that I will carry with me forever.

BTW...anyone who wants to, can take some of that debt out of my hide...<giggle>

Love-me

Dear Friends of my Mom,

I know you don't know who I am, and I don't know who you are, but I wanted to thank everyone that helped my Mom this holiday season. I am very thankful for the gifts you have brought us. The board games are awesome, we love the videos, the clothes completely rock, and the books are nice. Thanks to all of your helpfulness, I now have a total of ten porcelain dolls. Without your help, this holiday season would seriously bite. I completely freaked when I opened the jiggly water globe, but the awesome art supplies are my fave. Thanks a lot!!!

Renee', age 15

Thank you for all of the presents. My favorite thing was The Mask. It is a great show and I love Jim Carey so I like it a lot.

Aaron, age 10

Thank you for my new SCOOBY-DOO video!!! It's my new, most favoritest thing in the WHOLE world!! And my new, giant marker set, and my legos, and all of the "share toys." Tonight I am bringing my Chutes and Ladders game to a friend's house to play.

Sean, age 5

And now on a personal note from the Editor.. I want to thank Lawana and all her "helpers" for all their hard work on yet another fund-raising raffle. Everyone's most generous giving from their hearts and wallets and time made this an especially wonderful and magical season for this family. This is a community that pulls together and cares! I am blessed to be a part of this community! Gazelle

Her Eyes... by Celtic Prince

Her eyes turn to tears
 I know she is hurting
 I feel her pain
 and want to give my comfort
 I take her into my arms only to hold her close to me.
 and kiss away all her tears

She holds all the treasures that One may possess
 she is my everything
 Her voice is soft and enchanting
 Her hair ever so silky
 She brings my body to a rage

As I Pleasured all her hungers.

Her eyes stared into mine
 for just a brief moment
 My heart started to pound fast and hard
 She has brought me to my knees,
 I look up to her with a smile
 Yes Mistress?
 I long for her control over me and wait to fulfill all her wants, needs, and desires.
 For I belong To Her!!!

The Ride Home...erotica by SusieQ

Emily waited as the guard pulled the heavy wooden door to the main lobby closed and turned the key.

"Friday night at last," Emily sighed, confiding as she reached to test the door. "I sure dread that long drive home in traffic."

"Looks like you might have some company tonight," the guard commented, and tilted his head out toward the parking lot.

Emily looked across the nearly vacant lot to her car. Leaning against the trunk was a tall, well built man in his mid forties. With his hands resting comfortably in his pockets, and crossed feet bracing him against the car, the broad smile on his handsome face sent an excited shiver through her.

"See you Monday," Emily called to the guard as she hurried off.

"Hi," Emily greeted, smiling radiantly.

"Hello Emily," he replied, lightly kissing her cheek. "I thought we could ride home together. Would you like that?"

"Yes Sir," Emily bubbled, fishing the keys from the bottom of her purse. Taking the keys from her, he unlocked the driver side and opened the door.

"I want you to drive tonight," he said, smiling as he held the door. "I have a few things I want to do. You don't mind, do you?"

"No Sir, I don't mind," Emily happily agreed, slipping in behind the wheel. As soon as he was seated on the passenger side, Emily started the car.

"Emily," he spoke calmly, "before we leave I want you to do something for me."

"Sure," Emily answered, her smile fading slightly as she turned to find him watching her. "What?"

"First, remove your bra and attach these to your nipples," he said, and handed her a pair of non adjustable, rubber tipped nipple clamps joined by a twelve inch silver chain.

"Master!" Emily gasped. "I can't do that here!"

"Excuse me, I don't think I heard you correctly," he questioned, fondly caressing the silver chain between his fingers.

Emily sat staring at the nipple clamps dangling at the ends of the chain. She remembered the startling bite as the clips latch on to her nipples, and clenched the muscles in her pussy. How could she do this, right here in broad daylight, she thought and switched off the ignition.

He gave her a minute to think, then with a finger under her chin, lifted her head until their eyes met.

"Remove your bra and attach the clips," he repeated with quiet emphasis. "For me, okay."

Emily's hazel eyes were fixed on her Masters as she whispered, "Yes Master," and reached under her blouse to unfastened her bra. Discreetly sliding the straps down each of her slender arms she gave an easy tug, then quickly slipped her bra into her purse. Emily's trusting gaze returned to her Master's face, as she lifted the chain from his fingers. Quickly her eyes swept the parking lot, then she raised her blouse exposing her left breast. Looking down at herself, she saw that her nipple was already erect, and seemed to be waiting for her to complete her Master's request. Pinching the ends of the clamp together with her finger and thumb she positioned her sensitive nipple between the rubber tips, and let go.

"Mmmmmffff," Emily whimpered softly, biting her lower lip against the pain.

It took a few seconds for the muscles in her butt to relax and her toes to uncurl, but they finally did. Again she lifted her blouse, this time to expose her right breast. As she positioned the nipple between the rubber tips, her Master's warm hand slipped under the hair at the base of her neck. Emily released the ends of the clamp onto her nipple, and her Master's mouth covered hers, effectively muffling her erotic moan.

Releasing his embrace, Emily sagged back in her seat.

"Emily," he said, his deep voice arousing her senses.

"Yes, Master."

"Remove your panties."

With the nipple clips attached, Emily compliantly removed her panties and placed them in her purse along with her bra. Settling back in the seat, Emily again started the car.

"Emily, my pet, push your skirt up in the back. I want your bare bottom on the seat," her Master instructed with a smile.

Emily wiggled and scooted around until the back of her skirt was up, but the front was smoothed neatly over her lap. Pleased with herself for doing everything her Master wanted, Emily wiggled her bottom one more time, then moved the gear shift into drive.

"Now, you are to masturbate while you drive home," her Master pleasantly concluded.

Emily threw the car into park, "What!" she yelped, twisting herself around to face her Master. "No!" she blurted out, "No, I won't!"

Unamused by her outburst, Emily's Master waited patiently for her to finish.

"Master, what if a truck pulls up beside me? What if we get stuck in a traffic jam?" she fussed, with perfect logic. "Anyway, I wanted to stop at the drive thru and pick up dinner."

Having heard enough he interrupted her rambling excuses. "Are you quite through fussing, young lady?"

Emily's eyes were still full of fire as she wrinkled her nose, and gave a disgruntled huff. Then with another aggravated hiss, she grabbed the steering wheel with both hands and stared out the windshield.

Nonchalantly, her Master reached over and unbuttoned the third button of Emily's blouse. He then slipped his finger through the opening, and hooked the chain of the nipple clamps. Emily's eyes widened as he pulled gently on the chain, turning her to face him.

"You are to place your fingers in your pussy, then I will draw your seatbelt over your lap and fasten it; pinning your wrist under the belt. That way I will be sure your fingers stay where they belong until we arrive at the house."

"Yes Master," Emily sighed, again wrinkling her nose at him like a little girl.

Her Master had quickly learned what that little sighing whimper and wrinkled nose meant and smiled inwardly. Emily was aroused by the idea, but needed his insistence. She didn't like having to give in, and was testing him, in her own way, to be sure he meant what he said. He also knew, at times, she needed the reassurance that he would follow through with discipline if she disobeyed.

"Turn around and begin stroking your clit," her Master instructed firmly.

Emily shifted around briefly in the seat, then slid her right hand between her thighs, extending her middle finger into the warm, wet folds of her sex.

Her Master reached across her chest and pulled the seatbelt over and down, drawing it tight against her hips. After the buckle locked, his hand roamed upward to snag the silver chain resting on Emily's breast.

Emily watched as her Master's fingers took up the slack in the chain between the clips. With a quick, but gently tug on the chain, Emily's eyes leaped to meet her Master's, and his warm lips pressed against hers.

"Home, my pet," he whispered, and settled back in the passenger seat to enjoy an entertaining ride through town.

Interview with Jo & Lu...by Gazelle

Jo & Lu, also known as SirChaps & wolfcublu, have been attending the Orlando Munches and the WELL (Women Embracing the Leather Lifestyle) groups for about 1-1/2 yrs now. Both women enjoy getting to the parties, munches and meetings around the area, and enjoy meeting and learning from others.

How long have you two been together?

It will be 6 years in April.

I know the SM was not part of your relationship in the beginning. What was the catalyst or spark that finally brought it in?

One night I said to Jo as we were laying in bed.....what would You think if I told You <g> (words like bondage and pain came from my lips) <G> ....knowing this might possibly make or break our 4 yr relationship at the time....But looking back on it, BDSM has taken our relationship to a new and very exciting level <smile>....

Lu, how long have you had an interest in the scene?

I did not really know there was a "scene".... I just thought I was really kinky <g> and perhaps the only one on earth who had these feelings....but after a lot of research .....I found I was not alone <G>

Jo, when Lu first started talking to you about this, you really didn't have an interest in it, did you? What were your thoughts or concerns coming in?

Lu and I are lifetime partners (soulmates) and I to wanted to learn more as she did.... I did not want to risk losing our relationship we had worked so hard to build together <smile>

I remember seeing and meeting you both for the first time at the first women's leather meeting. Can you share some of your thoughts of how you felt that day, of what you were both thinking?

(Lu remembering Jo's hysterical comments and concerns about "fire play"....)<giggling> Jo thought people were set on fire <g> and She was so distraught over the thoughts and it took me days to calm Her down <g> so I got the SM 101 book and Screw the Roses book out to help Her understand about scenes <smile> and that it is a type of play..."scene"...It was 1 yr. later that Jo allowed me to experience "Fire play" with Mistress Catz from S. Fl ....and it was the most incredible sensation I have yet to have and I thank Them both for such a wonderful experience

How did you find the Orlando BDSM community, and was it difficult for you to make the leap from private SM to public?

The Internet is a wonderful and discrete tool... I found a Floridian in the "F for F Domme/sub" chat room who sent me the link after many weeks of exploring the internet...

Our private play remained private for about 6 months ....then we met you, Gazelle, and Torville...You came to our home and semi-privately taught Jo how to "wax"...Thank You !...It was at a women's play party that Jo allowed me to play in public for the first .... Gazelle, you made my first public bottoming experience an event I will always cherish <smile> So I guess our leap from private to public was rather smooth.....although Jo still prefers to TOP in private ...She is coming into Her own and continues to learn and takes me on wonderful journeys ..

How much does the scene play a part in your lives together?

It is a daily part of our lives now as Jo is worshipped and doted on daily by lu in her efforts to please Jo <smile>

How do you feel the SM has affected the dynamics of your relationship, if any?

Thinking back it has actually made our relationship stronger today than it was at the beginning....Our communications have greatly improved and this has enhanced our lives together

Are you able to be "out" about the leather lifestyle to any of your friends, coworkers or family?

In a dream we wish everyone could be as accepting of our lifestyle choices as the pansexual Orlando Munch group....but perhaps in time by continuing the efforts in educating the public that this is safe, sane and consensual and because of it we are better now than before !

There has been much said about the discrimination that many leather lesbians feel from other lesbians because of their choice to have SM in their lives. Have ### you experienced that discrimination yourselves? Why do you feel that some have a problem with our choice of lifestyle?

Discrimination is evident every day in all lifestyles and with ethnicities and just plain being "different" in general.....One with such a closed mind is the one who has lost greatly....

Discrimination is something we must all try to avoid and it is only then that we truly have incredible friendships...

Being part of the growing gay & lesbian presence in the Orlando Munch community, do you feel the goal of true pansexuality is an attainable one?

We have been made to feel so welcome by the Pansexual munch group .....and we feel we have made many lasting friendships because of the group's goal

Do you spend a lot of time on the internet?

Somewhat...this is how lu first began learning that it was in fact a "lifestyle" .....

What are your favorite sites to visit?

We like to go to the "F for F Domme/sub" chat room, and occasionally the "FlaDomsb" room, and of course Fetish Diva Midori's web site and newsletter <blush>

Who are the people who have influenced you in the scene, and how?

Interview with Jo & lu...by Gazelle

We have learned from so many in the lifestyle....it began with on-line, where a few willing Domme's would answer lu's endless questions ( she would play a game called 20 questions), to today's treasured friendships ( Frmtouch3 from NYC, Onswitch from Washington St., Pirate from GA., and of course, Mistress Midori who sent lu her first lifestyle links)

We have met so many incredibly talented people and now wonderful friends <smile> in the local lifestyle....to start naming them would take so much space in this column....but please know that when Jo and I attend a function, we do carefully observe and ask questions and continue to learn, thanks to so many so willing to share their knowledge, and for that we are truly grateful!

What are some of your favorite types of play?

Well <lu...blushing> she has not experienced any she has not completely enjoyed <wg>

Any favorite toys to use?

We both love the viper and the cane <wg>

When you started out in the public scene, you only played with each other. Why did that change, and what do you feel the pros and cons of opening up to others would be?

This changed because of the need for us to experience more within this lifestyle...We feel it all boils down to one important issue. "Trust"..... do we trust the person we are about to engage in "Play".

Further we feel that there are no "Pros and cons" if there is open communication between all who are involved...

Lu, everyone has been delighted by the memories of your gourmet dinner being raffled off (for the LARGEST single prize!) at the last Bash... How was that night at the Bash for you? How did the dinner go?

It was a whirlwind for me...my feet were far from the ground that night.... Other than forgetting to lap everyone's napkin..... the dinner was wonderful...from start to finish it took 8 hours....

And most importantly, are you planning a repeat this year?

Well I was thinking I would offer something different this year...This is a cause I truly believe in supporting....funding to help find a cure for the Aids virus..... Therefore....I would like to offer (but not in person on the stage since I know most of the servers for your banquet that evening).... How does a scrumptious buffet for a play party sound or .....even a .....who could imagine a vanilla event <g> for about 12-15 decorated in black and blue linen.....<G> that is what I will offer at the Orlando event this year.... even though I can not be seen on stage....

Do you both have a vision of where you'd like to see the Orlando Munch go in the future? The leather community in general here?

The Orlando Munch group has met our vision of continued education for those interested in the lifestyle and to continue to educate those who may not share our incredible Joys <smile>
