The Board's Corner

Greetings, Hello, and Welcome to The Board's Corner one of the many new things to come!

Well the Bash 2001 is over and for those of you who did not attend all I can say is you missed one hell of a great time!!! It was a busy weekend filled with workshops during the day and of course you just had to find time to check out all the vendors. Then rush rush rush to get changed for dinner knowing the play rooms would be open soon.

Friday after dinner there was a wonderful fashion show coordinated by our own NotSoSubby. All vendors had the opportunity to show their merchandise off on the lovely volunteer models. With NotSoSubby on the stage and the models in those hot outfits.....well it was a sigh to see! We do hope that she will agree to coordinate the fashion show next year.

Saturday night started off with a BANG with a 50/50 drawing. One lucky little lady walked out with over $500!!! Joel, from Trident, stepped on stage to tell everyone a little bit about the charity for this year, The Richard Alger Memorial Fund.

Joel and Richard were life partners and both Trident members. With Richard's passing, Trident decided to dedicate a fund in his name donating all money raised this year to the with all money this year to the charities they support. By the time Joel stepped off the stage there was not a dry eye in the house and the lucky 50/50 winner came back up to the stage and handed Joel $100 for the Memorial Fund. Not only was she a money winner, but she won the hearts of Trident members and Bash attendees with her generosity.

Thanks to the our vendors we had over 50 door prizes to give out, then it was on the highlight of the night....the AUCTION! Not so silent bids were taken through out the day and Saturday night the top action bids hit the stage for sale. The Trident table was hopping with people buying extra money for that special item, they wanted to bid on.

Watching bidders run to buy, beg or borrow "fun money", not to mention the begging and (nice) threats between bidders was loads of fun. "I never realized how much talent there was among our group." was one comment I heard when a certain hot gentleman hit the stage offering a scene with sword play. A gourmet dinner served in your home, flogging scenes, scene baskets and a massage given by two very hot ladies, (they even provided pictures of themselves for the bid sheet), were just a few of the items for sale.

After all this fun and excitement Trident announced that over $2300 was raised for The Richard Alger Memorial Fund. Trident wanted us to express their thanks and appreciation for the help, support and generosity of the Bash attendees. To show their thanks for our support they even helped our with security and DMing needs on both nights.

Late Again.... Erotica by SusieQ

Emily saw her Master standing on the front porch when she pulled around the corner. She was late again, and he had warned her last time of the consequences. Her thoughts raced as she got out of the car, searching for the right words to explain her tardiness.

Emily stopped where the sidewalk met the porch. "I had a customer. I know I should have called you," she stammered. "But they kept browsing, couldn't make up their mind. Then I got caught in the evening traffic. I know I should have called before I left, but I didn't want to take the time."

Her Master waited as she stumbled through her story, watching her shift nervously from foot to foot. The expression on his face revealed his irritation as he held up his hand to silence her. Reaching into his pocket he produced a pocketknife. "Cut me two switches. Each are to be at least three feet long and a quarter inch thick," he instructed, handing her the knife. Emily set her things on the ground, and stretched out her hand, palm up, meekly accepting the opened blade.

When she returned, he solemnly informed her of the next task. "You are to go inside. Remove your skirt. Pull your panties down to your knees, and position yourself over the back of the sofa," he said, his green eyes passionless under his drawn brows. "Your feet are to be on the floor and the tip of your nose pressed against the cushion. Then, you will wait for me, as I have for you."

When her Master walked into the living room Emily was positioned over the back of the sofa as he had instructed. She lifted her head, looking in his direction when she heard him enter. "Your nose is supposed to be against the cushion," he reminded her, and she quickly lowered her head.

Emily heard him set something on the coffee table, and then he moved to stand behind her. A moment later Emily felt her Master's hand skim along the inside of her thighs, urging her legs further apart. His fingers gently squeezed the lips of her pussy, increasing the excited tension mounting within her.

"Look up at the coffee table," her Master ordered. As Emily lifted her eyes, the first thing she saw was a clock with large, red digital numbers. "How late were you?" "Twenty minutes, Master," Emily replied softly. "Then you will be switched twenty times," he said with quiet emphasis.

He was standing close against her bare bottom, caressing it's roundness. "I will administer one stroke a minute. Whether it will be as the minute changes or during that minute you will have to wait for each until it arrives, as I have been force to wait for you to arrive home." His repeating of the fact he had been kept waiting, caused Emily's heart to skip a beat.

Her Master then move back and to the left. She could feel his eyes roam over her rear, taking in the beauty of her firm, full buttocks. Slowly he ran the switch up and down, inside the dividing crevice of her asscheeks, toying with her nerve endings and building her anticipation of what was about to happen. As he drew back, he watches Emily clench her asscheeks preparing for the first lash. Instead he laid the switch back across her bottom and began moving it in a path from the top of her ass to the middle of her thighs, delegating without words the boundaries he had chosen.

"After each lash," her Master's deep voice instructed, "you will repeat; Thank you, Master. I will not be late again." "Yes Master," Emily whimpered, knowing how she dreaded this ordeal and craved it's searing pain at the same time. "Watch the clock," he ordered, and she fixed her eyes on the glowing numbers.

The time changed to 6:40 and the first stroke landed in the middle of her buttocks. "MMMMFFF!" Emily's muffled gasp filled the cushion as her toes curled tipping her ass into a more upward position. "Thank you, Master. I will not be late again."

Each minute ticked painfully by, as Master and slave waited.

SWISH!!!!

"AAHHHH! Thank you, Master. I will not be late again."

More than once Emily flailed her legs as the switch welted a different area of her upturned ass. Her required statement coming between choking sobs, at times muffled by the cushion she now hugged tightly. But she didn't lose count of the number of times the switch landed, and as the clock flashed 7:00 the last searing lash fell.

"Oooowwwmmmmffff! Thank you, Master. I will not be late again."

Emily could feel her Master's nearness, as his fingers lightly traced the welts he had left. She felt his fingers touch her dripping wet pussy, carefully spreading the sticky lips apart. She felt him move to position himself between her legs, then heard the zipper of his trousers being lowered. She felt his warm hands gently grasp her hips, drawing her back.

Her pussy muscles clenched as she felt her Master push himself deep into her. With each thrust, the pain diminished and pleasure took its place. She and her Master soon began to move together as one, each carrying the other closer and closer to the climax both of them now desired.

Emily's entire body began to spasm as her wide spread legs quivered uncontrollably, and her hips gyrated on top of the soft sofa. As the inner walls of her pussy constricted, her Master could feel the first wave of his own orgasm begin. His fingers dug into Emily's hips, his groin began to thrust faster, and his asscheeks tightened.

"Oh please Master, cum with me," Emily moaned loudly, as her orgasm overtook her senses." "Yeesss, my pet," her Master groaned, as his own juices shot forth fulfilling his mate's passionate request. Emily remained across the back of the sofa as her Master slowly removed his cock, leaving her pussy with only a remembrance of his domination.

"You may clean yourself up, and then begin supper," her Master's warm voice allowed. Then taking hold of Emily's shoulders he assisted her to her feet, turned her around to face him and kissed her tenderly. "Next time, I think maybe you should take the time to make the phone call."

Pride Fest Review

Can anything be more fun than going to a party with bunch of your friends? No I don't mean the Bash, I'm talking about Pride Fest one of Orlando's annual gay celebrations. This years celebration was held separate from the Pride Parade, which is June 30th, and at the GLBCC Center, you know the great place where we have OPEX.

The alley was turned into a festival area a stage for music, speeches, and a first, a City Commissioner, Patty Sheehan. Along with the new were the traditional, lots of vendors selling all kinds of food, snacks, art and other fun stuff. The Munch had a table; we met a lot of new folks we hope to see at the Munch soon, handed out a lot of condoms, drank a lot slushies and had a great day. After enjoying the gathering of the tribe at the Bash its nice once again to spend time with another extended family. Hope to see you at the Pride Parade on June 30th.

A Call For Artwork

Trident of Central Florida has asked us to put a call out to artist in our group. They are looking for local artist to donate one <or more> pieces of artwork for auction. Artwork such as: paintings, sketches, drawings, sculptures, photos and anything else you can come up with is welcome.

Each year Trident holds an Erotic Art Auction, with all proceeds going to local charities. This year the money will go to The Richard Alger Memorial Fund. The Richard Alger Memorial Fund was dedicated in honor of one of Trident's members who gave selflessly during his lifetime and who they sadly lost this year. Those who attended the Bash heard Joel speak about his partner of many years and were touched by his words and his loss. The Munch Board now asks for those with artistic talents to step forward and be recognized as well as those of us with erotic artwork in our homes that we would like to donate for this worthy cause.

Trident holds auctions, sales and raffles through out the year collecting money that is donated at the end of the year to local charities like HER and Centaur. We ask for your support of this organization by making donating and coming out to the auction and buying donated pieces.

Comments from the Bash 2001

Thank you to You and all of the people that made this last weekend's Bash such a great experience.

As this was my first attendance at such a large gathering of fellow celebrators of our chosen lifestyle, I had expected to be a bit overwhelmed or perhaps even lost in the crowd. Happily this was not the case at all -- the Bash staff and the presenters, the security personnel and the vendors, and the wonderful hotel staff, were all warm and genuine people who helped to make this very new "newbie" feel wanted, welcomed and appreciated for who and what I am and can be.

You guys did a fantastic job - and I will definitely be coming to the BASH 2002!

Thank you again,
Raisa

I would like to say that this was truly a honor and privilege. It was the most fun I have had working a show and for that I want to thank you all from the bottom of my heart and truly look forward to many more.

I would also like to say YOU ALL KICKED ASS and it was a priceless memory. Thanx for the chance you gave me to one show my talent and two enjoy a spiritual moment that I have been so looking for. Thank you all for your kindness knowledge time sitting and talking with me and most of all for being you.

This was Masters and my first time but not our last....It was everything and more. I know next year will be as wonderful as this one was.
